

I have been an XM subscriber for a year and a half now, and its traffic and weather channels have been programmed as favorites since the first week. There is nothing more convenient than being able to drive long distances and know what lies ahead traffic and weatherwise without having to keep searching for stations. I urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160 and allow XM to continue its high level of broadcasting excellence.